

I am encouraged and blessed by listening to K-love radio. The programming allows a more positive experience than some of the foul and vulgar content on other stations. This station is an island of peace in a world of turmoil. The content of the station provides hope and help to hurting people, including myself. Although I do listen to other stations, I probably listen to K-Love more than half of the time. Radio provides a positive alternative to TV.